WHAT WE DO

Vision at TKLAB

To disciple & create disciples across the world.

Mission at TKLAB

Through movement & dance techniques teach the disciplines and values needed for a child of God & ultimately a strong disciple.

We aim to achieve a personal excellent best for each dancer that walk through our doors. We assess each dancer's strengths & weaknesses and according to that build them up in dance and life.

Together as a team we flourish with dedication, commitment, passion & hard work.

These characteristics, along with the ones taught in class, through competition preparations, on stage or in the battle scene will equip each dancer with the tools to reach their highest dance goals.

With the above being said when signing up with TKLAB you sign up to be a part of our year-end production which ties together our vision & mission and spreads the gospel to the masses.

You sign up to give your all, every day.

You sign up to enjoy dancing and to be grateful for every opportunity to dance.

RE-OPENING 2025

We will commence with ALL normal classes from MONDAY, 13 January 2025.

The TKLAB 2025 year planner schedule will be released middle February.

Take note: Dancers are always welcome to register during any time of the year for a class and we will get them up to speed as best we can.

Very Important:

The student registration should be completed before the student's first class of the year and accompanied by the R220 registration fee as well as the first month's class fees.

Registrations for 2025:

All NEW dancers will need to register on our ONLINE system for 2025.

AVAILABLE CLASSES

Foundational Classes

Mini Hip-Hop: Ages 4-6

This class is designed for beginner dancers. The primary objective is to cultivate a passion for Hip-Hop & Street Styles while fostering each dancer's confidence. Participants will learn the foundational elements of hip-hop, including its music, rhythm, and the authentic feel of the style.

Junior Hip-Hop: Ages 7-12

This class is designed for beginner dancers. Dancers will acquire foundational skills in Hip-Hop and Street Styles, gaining an understanding of the associated music, groove, and overall essence of these dance styles. Dancers will also participate in an annual assessment through the ASDDSA affiliation and will learn choreography routines that will be featured in the year-end production.

9 - 13 Years Hip-Hop:

This class is designed for dancers with a minimum of two years of dance experience. Dancers will delve into more advanced skills associated with Hip-Hop and Street Styles. Our objective is to cultivate confident, stage-ready dancers who possess a solid understanding of the various styles and movements they learn. Dancers will also participate in an annual assessment through the ASDDSA affiliation and will learn choreography routines that will be featured in the year-end production.

13 - 18 Years Hip-Hop:

In this class, dancers will concentrate on both foundational and intermediate aspects of Hip-Hop and Street Styles. Our objective is to cultivate confident, stage-ready performers who possess a solid understanding of the various styles and movements they learn. Dancers will also participate in an annual assessment through the ASDDSA affiliation and will learn choreography routines that will be featured in the year-end production.

15 Years & Older Master Class:

Dancers participating in this class are required to possess a minimum of three years of substantial dance experience, including proficiency in various street dance styles. The curriculum is designed to deepen their understanding and execution of street styles such as Popping, Krump, House etc.. The ultimate objective is to master advanced industry choreography and to execute all dance elements with precision and artistry. Class assignments will facilitate the achievement of these goals. Additionally, this class contributes to the more mature routines featured in the year-end production.

Other / Specialized Classes

Junior | Senior Specialized Styles Class:

This class is for dancers seeking to specialize and attain mastery in a specific street dance style, provided they already possess a foundational understanding of the culture and techniques associated with that style. The curriculum includes participation in Battles and Open Circles, facilitating optimal confidence and growth within the chosen specialization.

Note: This class does not count as a foundational class.

Open B-Boy Style Class:

This class is for individuals interested in B-Boying, also known as Breaking or Breakdance. You may be familiar with this style from performances, such as those featured in the "Step Up" films, where dancers showcase impressive headspins. B-Boying significantly enhances a dancer's overall personal style and versatility. In this class, dancers will concentrate on the foundational elements of B-Boying, including strength development for tricks, intricate footwork, and preparing for dance battles. Additionally, we are host a guest B-Boy each month, providing students with unique insights and expertise in this style.

Teachers Program:

This class is for dancers 15 Years and Older that want to become a qualified Hip-Hop & Street Dance teacher. We focus on training the dancers to dance at a high quality, teach at a high quality, and stay up to date with how the industry is changing. Every year they do a teachers assessments that qualify them to teach a specific level of Hip-Hop & Street Dance. The assessments are done through ASDDSA, and this program ensures that you have quality in your qualifications both locally & internationally.

Private Sessions:

Private Sessions can be arranged upon request and are designed to assist dancers in focusing on specific areas that require enhancement. We are dedicated to addressing any concerns that dancers or trainers identify for improvement, which may not always be achievable in a group setting. Every dancer possesses their unique identity, strengths, and weaknesses in various aspects of street dance, and our goal is to help them become the best dancers possible.

Sessions will only be scheduled based on available time slots, and interested individuals will need to discuss this personally.

Open Adult Class:

This class is for anyone looking to enjoy dancing as a fun pastime. Participants will focus on the joy of moving to music, honing new dance skills, gaining confidence in their bodies, getting fit, and forming new friendships.

Everyone is welcome, and no prior dance experience is required to join.
